THE STORY

> A summer night, a stolen glance, a quiet room that stayed open long after you left — what I remember never fades. Memory keeps its own archive, saving small details long after the larger story has blurred. Why do the smallest moments so often become the ones we can never forget?

LYRICS

What I Remember

VERSE 1

The way you laughed without a sound
The way you always came around
A summer night, a stolen glance
We never needed a second chance

PRE-CHORUS

And I remember
Still remember
Always will

CHORUS

What I remember
Is the way you made me feel
What I remember
Was the only thing that's real
I remember us
I remember everything
What I remember
Never fades

VERSE 2

The way the light fell on your hair
The way you acted like you cared
A quiet room, an open door
I keep remembering more and more

PRE-CHORUS

And I remember
Still remember
Always will

CHORUS

What I remember
Is the way you made me feel
What I remember
Was the only thing that's real
I remember us
I remember everything
What I remember
Never fades

BRIDGE

Some things stay
Long after they are gone
Some memories
Are all we hold onto

CHORUS - FINAL

What I remember
Is the way you made me feel
What I remember
Was the only thing that's real
I remember us
I remember everything
What I remember
Never fades
