THE STORY

> An empty room keeps speaking through objects, memory and echo. Even without a voice, silence carries the shape of someone who remains present. Absence can fill a room more completely than presence ever did; a coat, a cup, a key learn to speak in someone's voice. How long does a silence keep the sound of the person who left it?

LYRICS

Even Silence Sounds Like You

VERSE 1

Your coat on my chair
Rain on the glass
You left your key
But I still hear your laugh
The room stays warm
Then turns to blue
I turn around
And find you

PRE-CHORUS

In the dark
In the hush
Your name moves first
Then it rushes
I close my eyes
You come through

CHORUS

Even silence sounds like you
Even silence sounds like you
Say my name and pull me under
Even silence sounds like you
Even silence sounds like you
I keep falling back to thunder

VERSE 2

Half a cup
By the sink
Your perfume hangs
On the brink
The clock ticks slow
Then disappears
I hear your touch
In my ears

In the dark
In the hush
Your name moves first
Then it rushes
I close my eyes
You come through

CHORUS

Even silence sounds like you
Even silence sounds like you
Say my name and pull me under
Even silence sounds like you
Even silence sounds like you
I keep falling back to thunder

BRIDGE

If you're a ghost
Stay close tonight
Spin me once
In folded light
I'll follow where
The echoes go
Until the floor
Lets go

CHORUS

Even silence sounds like you
Even silence sounds like you
Say my name and pull me under
Even silence sounds like you
Even silence sounds like you
I keep falling back to thunder
