THE STORY

> Forever is not required for something to matter. Two people burn brightly inside borrowed time, knowing that what ends can still leave a permanent mark. Knowing that something will end can make it burn more honestly, without the illusion of endless time. If you knew this moment was only on loan, how would you choose to spend it?

LYRICS

Temporary Immortals

VERSE 1

You pulled me from the frost
With your hand on my skin
We were two small sparks
Learning how to begin
Glass in the blood moon
Silver on your tongue
We stayed too close to heaven
For the years we were given

PRE-CHORUS

Hold me while the world turns
Hold me while it burns
If this is only borrowed
I'll spend it on you

CHORUS

Temporary immortals
We burn, we burn
Temporary immortals
Then return, return
Say my name, say my name
Let it ring through the dark
Temporary immortals
We leave a mark

VERSE 2

Your boots by the doorway
My coat on the chair
Rain on the window
Like a code in the air
We knew what would happen
Still we reached for the flame
If forever was a rumor
We were still here today

PRE-CHORUS

Hold me while the world turns
Hold me while it burns
If this is only borrowed
I'll spend it on you

CHORUS

Temporary immortals
We burn, we burn
Temporary immortals
Then return, return
Say my name, say my name
Let it ring through the dark
Temporary immortals
We leave a mark

BRIDGE

When the hours fold in
And the sky goes thin
I still feel your pulse
Under my skin
If the dawn takes us back
To the same old dust
We were never meant to last
But we were enough

FINAL CHORUS

Temporary immortals
We burn, we burn
Temporary immortals
Then return, return
Say my name, say my name
Let it ring through the dark
Temporary immortals
We leave a mark
Temporary immortals
We leave a mark
