THE STORY

> Youth once felt like a guaranteed destination. The future faded, but its pulse remains alive in the people who carried it together. The dreams we shared when we were young do not die when life takes another road; they live on in a song, a street, a friend who still remembers. What part of the future you once believed in still deserves to be kept alive?

LYRICS

We Were Future Once

VERSE 1

We had a name in the dark
Tagged in white on the side of a night bus
Cheap shoes, hard laughs
Moving like nothing could touch us
We lived in the blue hour
With our plans zipped up in a paper bag
You said, "one day, one day"
And I held that word like a flag

PRE-CHORUS

Now the kick drums fade
And the crowd moves on
But I still hear you say
"We're not gone"

CHORUS

We were future once
We were future once
Pull me back in the pulse
Pull me back in the pulse
We were future once
We were future once
Don't let it drop to dust
Don't let it drop to dust

VERSE 2

There was static on the glass
And a train carving through the late bend
You laughed through the noise
Like the whole thing might restart again
Now the edges are worn
But that spark still kicks in me
If I reach for your hand
Will you still know me?

Now the kick drums fade
And the crowd moves on
But I still hear you say
"We're not gone"

CHORUS

We were future once
We were future once
Pull me back in the pulse
Pull me back in the pulse
We were future once
We were future once
Don't let it drop to dust
Don't let it drop to dust

BRIDGE / HALF-TIME BREAKDOWN

If the bassline cuts out
I'll keep your name in the drop
If the road slips away
Meet me where the lights stop

CHORUS

We were future once
We were future once
Pull me back in the pulse
Pull me back in the pulse
We were future once
We were future once
Still alive in us
Still alive in us
