THE STORY

> Standing at the edge where the undertow pulls hardest, and choosing to hold on anyway, through the tide and past it. Like the sea, emotions pull and return, sometimes carrying us further than we meant to go. Holding on is not resisting the tide but trusting we will still be there when it turns. What anchors you when the undertow is strongest?

LYRICS

Holding On Through All

VERSE 1

I was drifting out too far
Following a fading star
Every feeling washed away
But it always found its way
Shadows moving in the blue
Everything comes back to you
Every step becomes the same
As I lose what I became

PRE-CHORUS

No more fighting with the tide

CHORUS

When the undertow pulls me out too far
And the silence leaves a scar
When I'm standing at the edge of where you are
I can feel it in my heart
When the waves inside get hard to trust
And the dark becomes too much
When I'm standing at the edge of where you are
I'll be holding on through all

DROP

Hold on
Through the tide
Hold on
Through the night

VERSE 2

Every word I let escape
Still returns but not the same
You can hear it in the sound
All the weight that pulls me down
Nothing stays the way it was Still I follow what it does
Every line begins to fade
Like a name I never saved

No more fighting with the tide

CHORUS

When the undertow pulls me out too far
And the silence leaves a scar
When I'm standing at the edge of where you are
I can feel it in my heart
When the waves inside get hard to trust
And the dark becomes too much
When I'm standing at the edge of where you are
I'll be holding on through all

BREAK

FINAL CHORUS

When the undertow pulls me out too far
And the silence leaves a scar
When I'm standing at the edge of where you are
I can feel it in my heart
When the waves inside get hard to trust
And the dark becomes too much
When I'm standing at the edge of where you are
I'll be holding on through all

OUTRO

Hold on
Through the tide
Hold on
Till the light
