THE STORY

> A cinematic spoken-word opening built from distant piano, soft strings, human breaths and fragments of voices. The rhythm gradually appears and leads directly into the title track. Every song that follows opens a door into someone's life — a letter never sent, a road home that disappeared, a self left behind in an old photograph. Which stories do you carry that no one else has heard?

Human Stories – Intro

SPOKEN TEXT

Some stories begin where the map feels endless.
Some start when home is nowhere.
Some are words we never sent.
Some are memories running from yesterday.
Some lives move like parallel stories.
Some truths only rivers know.

And sometimes we look back and realize we're no longer someone we used to be.

These are not just songs.
These are human stories.

My name is DJ Andy'K.
