THE STORY

> Talking by the water where the old bridge meets the road, watching the current pull toward somewhere neither one dared go — some things only rivers know. We search for answers as though truth will stand still for us, but it moves like water — past us, under us, beyond what we can hold. Which unanswered question have you learned to let flow?

LYRICS

Only Rivers Know

VERSE 1

We were talking by the water
Where the old bridge meets the road
You said "maybe things get clearer
When we finally let them go"
Every answer felt like thunder
Rolling somewhere far below
But the truth kept moving past us
Like a river in its flow

PRE-CHORUS

We kept looking for a reason
Like the tide would let us know
But the current kept on pulling
Somewhere neither dared to go

CHORUS

Only rivers know
Where the restless hearts will go
Through the turning of the water
Through the undertow

Only rivers know
What the silent currents show
Some things drift forever
Only rivers know

VERSE 2

Now the city feels much colder
Every street a different tone
All the words we left unspoken
Still echo when I'm alone
We were waiting for a moment
When the doubts would finally slow
But the moment kept on drifting
Like the river in its flow

We kept hoping for tomorrow
Like tomorrow held the key
But the current kept on moving
Further out to sea

Only rivers know
Where the restless hearts will go
Through the turning of the water
Through the undertow

Only rivers know
What the silent currents show
Some things drift forever
Only rivers know

FINAL CHORUS

Only rivers know
Where the wandering souls will go
Past the bridges and the shadows
Where the deep tides flow

Only rivers know
What the quiet waters show
Some things last forever
Only rivers know
