THE STORY

> Four kilometers of broken light, a door that should have felt like home — just the road talking back, and silence where two hearts should have met. Some goodbyes happen without a fight; two people simply discover their hearts move at different speeds. Where do you go when the place you hoped to call home turns out to be a door you must leave?

LYRICS

When Home Is Nowhere

VERSE 1

Riding through the empty streets tonight
Four kilometers of broken light
I thought your door would feel like home
But now I'm cycling back alone

PRE-CHORUS

I gave you truth
I gave you me
But hearts don't move
At the same speed

CHORUS

When home is nowhere I can see
The road keeps talking back to me
A kiss goodbye
A quiet street
And silence where our hearts should meet

VERSE 2

Cold wind moving through the night
City fading out of sight
Every turn reminds me why
Some goodbyes don't ask us why

I gave you hope
I gave you time
But some hearts beat
In different lines

CHORUS

When home is nowhere I can see
The road keeps talking back to me
A kiss goodbye
A quiet street
And silence where our hearts should meet

OUTRO

When home is nowhere I just ride
Through silent streets
And empty lights
