THE STORY

Some people disappear without ever leaving. They still stand beside us and share the same rooms, yet the silences we once understood become unfamiliar, and the future we pictured together slowly turns into someone we do not recognize. Perhaps the hardest loss is not the one that ends with goodbye, but the one that never gives us the chance to say it. How can someone become your entire world — and then a stranger in it?

SONG STRUCTURE

Beautiful Stranger

INSTRUMENTAL OPENING

SPOKEN INTRO

I used to know you.
Not just your face...
But every silence
You were afraid to break.

And now...
I wonder who you are.

VERSE 1

I knew the stories in your eyes
The quiet truth behind your lies
I held the pieces you concealed
And loved the parts you never healed

We used to speak without a sound
Like two lost stars that had been found
But somewhere in the passing years
We disappeared without a tear

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE

VERSE 2

I watched the distance slowly grow
Between the hearts we used to know
You stood beside me every night
But somehow drifted out of sight

And when I reached to pull you near
I found a silence filled with fear
The hardest thing I had to face
Was losing you without a trace

SHORT INSTRUMENTAL BREAK

REFRAIN

STRANGER

I knew your heart
I knew your name
But nothing ever stays the same

BEAUTIFUL STRANGER, BEAUTIFUL
STRANGER

I knew your touch
I knew your eyes
But never learned to say goodbye

INSTRUMENTAL DROP

EMOTIONAL BREAKDOWN

SPOKEN REFLECTION

Isn't it strange...

How someone can become
Your entire world...

And then...
A stranger in it?

MAIN CHORUS

I watched our future turn into
A beautiful stranger
A thousand dreams we once believed
Now scattered in the air

I held forever in my hands
But couldn't make it stay
The one I thought I'd always know
Is someone else today

EXTENDED INSTRUMENTAL DROP

BRIDGE

If we should meet another time
Beneath a different kind of sky
Would something in your heart recall
The love we thought could conquer
all?

Or would you look straight through my eyes
And leave our memories behind?
Perhaps the cruelest kind of end
Is loving someone you can't find

FINAL INSTRUMENTAL BUILD

FINAL REFRAIN

BEAUTIFUL STRANGER, BEAUTIFUL
STRANGER

I knew your heart
I knew your name
But nothing ever stays the same

BEAUTIFUL STRANGER, BEAUTIFUL
STRANGER

I knew your touch
I knew your eyes
But never learned to say goodbye

FINAL INSTRUMENTAL CLIMAX

OUTRO

I watched our future turn into...
A beautiful stranger.
