THE STORY

There are moments when no explanation would help. The tears are visible, the hands are shaking, and the kindest thing another person can do is simply stay. No heavy words, no perfect answer — only a steady presence that lets us fall apart without having to account for it. What could you let go of if someone held the moment without asking why?

The Night Never Asked Me Why

VERSE 1

I wore the dark like silk
Down on my shoulders
You saw the tear tracks
Still said nothing

The room stayed still
The glass kept shining
My hands shook hard
But you kept listening

PRE-CHORUS

And the air got thin
When you moved close
One breath, one look
And I let go

CHORUS

The night never asked me why
(why, why)
The night never asked me why
I just fell apart inside
The night never asked me why
(why, why)
The night never asked me why
And you stayed by my side

I left the door unlocked
For all my sorrow
You came in slow
Like it was borrowed
No heavy words
No perfect answer
Just your steady pulse
Pulling me under

And the moon went low
Behind the glass
You held that moment
So I could pass

CHORUS

The night never asked me why
(why, why)
The night never asked me why
I just fell apart inside
The night never asked me why
(why, why)
The night never asked me why
And you stayed by my side

BRIDGE

Hold me through the breaking
Hold me through the light
I was lost in the motion
Then you made it right

CHORUS

The night never asked me why
(why, why)
The night never asked me why
I just fell apart inside
The night never asked me why
(why, why)
The night never asked me why
And you stayed by my side
