THE STORY

Some moments burn so brightly that we only understand them once they have passed. Two strangers meet at the edge of a crowd, the room falls away, and for a few hours everything feels inevitable. Looking back, perhaps the ending was written in the sky long before we noticed — and we danced anyway. Would you still have chosen the dance if you had known how it would end?

SONG STRUCTURE

The Sky Knew Us First

INSTRUMENTAL INTRO

VERSE 1

We met at the edge of the crowd
Your hand found mine
Like it knew my name
The glass in your hair
The salt on your skin
Everything glowing
Like a flame

PRE-CHORUS

And the room fell away
To a distant pulse
I could feel it start
I could feel us turn
One look from you
And the air went thin
Like the night leaned in
To pull us in

CHORUS

We danced, we danced
We danced beneath it
The sky knew us first
The sky knew us first
We burned so bright
For a second, then
We danced beneath a sky
That already knew our ending

INSTRUMENTAL DROP

Your laugh hit hard
Like a spark on glass
I held it close
Till it cut my hand
We spun through the hours
Like they couldn't last
And every step
Was a wave in sand

PRE-CHORUS

Then the lights went low
And the pulse went high
You said, stay here
I said, I'll try
If this is the fall
Then pull me in
Let the whole world crack
As we start to spin

CHORUS

We danced, we danced
We danced beneath it
The sky knew us first
The sky knew us first
We burned so bright
For a second, then
We danced beneath a sky
That already knew our ending

INSTRUMENTAL BREAK

BRIDGE

Oh, I still see you
In the pale blue haze
A perfect storm
In a borrowed frame
If we were a secret
Then say my name
Say my name
As it fades

FINAL BUILD

FINAL CHORUS

We danced, we danced
We danced beneath it
The sky knew us first
The sky knew us first
We burned so bright
For a second, then
We danced beneath a sky
That already knew our ending

FINAL INSTRUMENTAL DROP

OUTRO

We danced, we danced
We danced beneath it
The sky knew us first
The sky knew us first.
