THE STORY

> Just piano and voice, recorded live in the room — mic bleed, natural imperfection, one brief laugh, a spoken "sorry" before the real take begins. Every few years someone declares a sound finished, and every time the floor answers back. This is a song for everyone who kept feeling it anyway, who healed on dancefloors and survived on melodies. What music kept you alive when the world said it was over?

LYRICS

This Is Trance, Hear the Call (Live Rehearsal Room Version)

INTRO — SPOKEN, LIVE REHEARSAL TAKE

(soft grand piano, minor-key arpeggio, live room mic)
(quiet natural laugh)
"...sorry —"
(brief pause)
"Okay. Now for real."

VERSE 1

People says, that trance just die
I made the music, let them try
We don't sleep, we feel it all
One more night,
I can't believe it
Do you feel it?

CHORUS

This is trance, hear the call
Don't let go, and just try
Don't let go, we survive

POST-CHORUS / HOOK

Signal green, power on Healing fast, move on

VERSE 2

People says that, trance just die
I made the beats, make them cry
We don't sleep, we feel it all
One more night,
I can't believe it
Do you feel it?

CHORUS

This is trance, hear the call
Don't let go, and just try
Don't let go, we survive

POST-CHORUS / HOOK

Signal green, power on Healing fast, move on

PRE-BUILD / BRIDGE

We came for the pressure
We came for the sound
We came for the love for love to be found
We came for the moment that nobody planned
We came for the feeling
we still understand

HOOK

One beat, one room
one pulse, one night
If trance ever died
we brought it back to life

BUILD

Keep it climbing, keep it sharp hands up higher, kick the dark
Hold the tension, hold the line
one more layer, and we're fine
No surrender, no slow-down feel that bassline, shake the ground

FINAL CHORUS / DROP

We survive, we survive
trance is running through the night
We survive, we survive
turn it up and let it rise

OUTRO

(instrumental fade, room tone / tribal tail)
