THE STORY

> There is a quiet courage in allowing an ordinary day to become something you never planned. For a moment, uncertainty feels warmer than safety, and staying becomes easier than walking away. We spend so much of our lives trying to choose correctly that we sometimes forget how beautiful an unguarded choice can be. What if the best mistake of your life was the moment you finally stopped being careful?

LYRICS

Best Mistake I Ever Made

VERSE 1

You dropped your keys outside the station.
I picked them up, my hands were shook.
You said your name before I asked it.
I forgot my own, and looked.

PRE-CHORUS

Three trains passed while we were talking.
Neither one of us got on.
You asked me if I did this often.
I said never, till you'd come along.

CHORUS

I almost let the moment pass.
I almost walked away too fast.
Glad I stayed, glad I spoke.
Best mistake I ever made.

VERSE 2

You gave a number on a napkin.
I called it twice before you'd pick.
You said you almost didn't answer.
I said I'm glad you did.

PRE-CHORUS

Funny how a platform changes.
Funny how a stranger stays.
You could've caught that train and left me.
You stayed and chased the grey away.

CHORUS

I almost let the moment pass.
I almost walked away too fast.
Glad I stayed, glad I spoke.
Best mistake I ever made.

OUTRO

Glad I stayed.
Glad I stayed.
