THE STORY

> Desire can begin with the pleasure of being noticed. A glance lingers, confidence answers, and the distance between two people becomes something both are willing to cross. There is joy in that exchange — in allowing yourself to be wanted, and letting the other person see that you want them too. How close would you come if you trusted that you were welcome?

LYRICS

Come Closer

VERSE 1

You caught my eye across the bar line.
I bet you knew it all along.
You moved a little closer, slower.
I moved right along.

PRE-CHORUS

You said my name like you'd rehearsed it.
I said I liked the way it sounds.
You took my hand before I offered.
I let you pull me down.

CHORUS

Come closer, don't hold back tonight.
Come closer, we don't need the light.
You got me moving to the beat you set.
Come closer, I'm not done with you yet.

VERSE 2

You said we'd only stay a minute.
I said an hour, maybe more.
You spun me once beneath the lights out.
I wanted one spin more.

PRE-CHORUS

You whispered something, I leaned closer.
I couldn't hear it through the sound.
You said you'd say it slower later.
I said don't make me wait around.

CHORUS

Come closer, don't hold back tonight.
Come closer, we don't need the light.
You got me moving to the beat you set.
Come closer, I'm not done with you yet.

OUTRO

Don't stop.
Not yet.
