The musical score is presented in a system of three systems, each with two staves (G and F). The first system (measures 1-4) features a G staff with whole rests and an F staff with a descending line of notes (G4, F4, E4, D4). The second system (measures 5-8) continues the F staff line and introduces a G staff with whole rests. The third system (measures 9-16) shows more complex voicings, with the G staff having notes in measures 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, and 16, while the F staff continues its line. Chord symbols (Em, C, B, Am) are placed above the measures, and dynamics (mf, f, p, mp) are placed below the staves.
